Front-End Developer

The Front-End Developer will work with the design team to stay on the cutting edge of responsive website design. This position will analyze creative assets from in-house designers and help develop custom Drupal based themes for client websites. This role will require the developer to enforce Drupal theme best practices and principles. The Front-End Developer will approach each theme project with the customer's business needs in mind, creating themes that ultimately help customers fulfill business objectives and optimizes the User Experience within the Drupal framework. This position will require from time-to-time consultation on design and direct interaction with clients.

In addition, this position will build custom Drupal themes based on design assets generated internally or by the customer. The custom Drupal themes will be cross-browser and cross-platform compatible (desktop, tablet, smartphone) or as agreed to by the client.

Responsibilities

- 2+ years experience building user interfaces from for design assets for the web and/or software applications.
- 2+ years creating custom Drupal or WordPress themes
- Ability to understand and interpret written creative briefs/questionnaires, wireframes, creative assets to direct reports in best theming practices.
- Ability to effectively multi-task, working on multiple projects in unison.
- Ability to effectively communicate with clients via email, phone, and face-to-face
- Ability to provide project time estimates to project planners and the sales team
- Expert Adobe Creative Suite software skills: Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign
- Understands latest trends and techniques for styling for desktop and mobile browsers (CSS/HTML5/JS).
- Knowledge of responsive design, & understanding of mobile-first approach design
- Detail oriented, excellent follow through
- Thorough understanding of custom Drupal development involving modules and custom themes.
- Excellent presentation skills and communication abilities
- Expertise in interactive design, CSS3 animation techniques
- Excellent time management, problem solving, and teamwork skills.